Student Expectations at Montana Wild
To be Read by Students & Parents

Montana Wild is a place of discovery for people of all ages to visit and enjoy. We ask that during your stay here you assist us by respecting this unique public treasure by following these simple rules:

- Dress to be outside for long periods of time. Please bring a hat, gloves, winter jacket, and closed-toed shoes.
- Bring a water bottle. The education center has a drinking fountain, but you may be outdoors for long periods of time.
- Depending on the season, you may want to bring sunscreen and bug spray. MT Wild does not provide either one of these items.
- You are responsible for your own belongings. MT Wild is not responsible for any lost or stolen items.
- We expect you to participate at Montana Wild in the spirit of cooperation and to contribute positively to the group experience.
- Your conduct should be appropriate to a classroom environment and should allow others to learn, to be safe, and to enjoy their learning experience.
- You will need to respect and listen to the adult in charge, whether it is your classroom teacher, chaperone, or your MT Wild instructor.
- You must have adult supervision and permission if you are swimming or wading in Spring Meadow Lake.
- Sorry, there is no food (includes candy & gum) or beverages (except water), candy, gum or drinks allowed inside the MT Wild Education Center.
- Please leave electronic devices in the bus. Cell phones must be turned off when participating in MT Wild Programs.
- Please respect the property at MT Wild. Property includes both human made elements and the natural environment. This includes not disturbing any plant or animal life. Please pick up after yourself and dispose of trash/recycling properly.
- The "Living Stream" (aquarium) is one of a kind, requiring special care to maintain a healthy fish habitat. Please help us keep it healthy. It is important to keep hands & other objects out of the water. The fish ask you please do not bang on the glass.
- Exhibits are fragile and unless otherwise directed cannot be handled.
- No weapons, tobacco, illegal drugs or alcohol are allowed at MT Wild.
- Please understand that you may be asked to leave an activity or sent home for violating any of MT Wild rules or your school's rules pertaining to the MT Wild trip.
