*The Commercial Use Rules do not apply to an individual photographer or videographer operating on his or her own without the use of models, props, crew members or clients.

Model – a person who is accompanying the photographer/videographer and is the subject of a photo or video.

Prop – an object brought on location to enhance the photo or video, e.g., a piece of furniture, backdrop, signs, etc. “Prop” does not include a tripod or other piece of photography equipment.

Client – person who is compensating a photographer or videographer for their services.

Crew – a person who is compensated to assist the photographer or videographer. The photographer, videographer, prop, or model is considered a crew member for purposes of determining the permit fee.

Note: The commercial use fee rule includes a menu of fee systems from which the department may select one system for a particular site or sites. The menu of options enables the department to cooperate with other state and federal agencies and to evaluate the types of commercial use present and select the most appropriate fee system based on ease of administration and input from the commercial users.
