

Women's Fly Fishing Class in Kalispell

held at Snappy Sport Senter – 1400 US Hwy 2 East

Saturday – June 9th 8:30 am to 4 pm

Registration Fee: $15 Registration deadline: June 4th or until filled

This class is for the beginning fly fisher who wants to learn or improve her fishing skills. At the class, you'll learn how to select and set up fishing rods and reels, how to choose flies, and how to tie fishing knots. You'll also learn about reading the water and the basics of fly casting, hooking and playing fish and being safe on the water. Lunch is provided. For any questions contact Jim Vashro: (406) 270-9914 or jsivash@montanasky.us

What should I bring?

- If you have fly fishing gear you can bring it. If you don't have any gear, it will be provided for you. Please don't buy any gear for this workshop. You'll learn about different equipment and what to look for when making a purchase.
- Please bring/wear clothing appropriate for being outdoors. It's best to dress in layers for changing weather conditions. A hat and polarized sunglasses are a good idea.
- You DO NOT need a fishing license as participants have an exemption during class time.

Upon receipt of your registration form, we will contact you to confirm your attendance.
