Bowhunting 101

Saturday, February 29
9:00am-3:00pm
Missoula, MT

If you are interested in bowhunting, then this is the workshop for you!

Join our knowledgeable instructors for an introduction to bowhunting where we will talk about why we hunt, the realities of bowhunting, hunting licenses and laws, bows and arrows, hunting equipment and gear, calling, wilderness preparedness, physical fitness, and how to find places to hunt.

Class will be held at the Missoula Fish, Wildlife & Parks office located at 3201 Spurgin Road. Driving directions will be provided with registration confirmation.

- Class cost is $5
- Must be +18 to register
- Please bring a lunch. BOW will provide coffee, tea and snacks.

We plan to follow this workshop up with a hands on shooting opportunity later in the spring. Date TBD. Participants of this workshop will have registration priority for that event.

If you have any questions please call Sara at 406-444-5280.
