IF YOU WERE NOT APPROVED FOR LANDOWNER PREFERENCE IN 2022, APPLICATIONS FOR LANDOWNER PREFERENCE MUST INCLUDE:

- Copy of the property deed, contract to purchase, or tax bill.
- Signatory Authority Documentation. If the land in which you are claiming landowner preference is listed as a Corporation, Sole Proprietorship, Limited Liability Company, Partnership, Limited Partnership, Limited Liability Partnership, Trust, or an Association, you MUST provide documentation that you have the legal authority to make this decision on behalf of the business. (i.e. Articles of Incorporation, Partnership Agreement, Certificate of Trust, etc.).

INFORMATION FOR ALL LANDOWNER PREFERENCE APPLICATIONS

- Landowner preference is applied only to the applicant's first-choice hunting district.
- Businesses claiming landowner preference may delegate to an owner, partner, member of the owner or partner's immediate family (related by blood or marriage), or an employee who has state, federal, or FICA taxes withheld from their wages.
- Only one person may be delegated landowner preference for each sole proprietorship, partnership, trust, or corporation.
- You may not apply for landowner preference if you applied as a member of a party.
- If the license/permit is only valid for a portion of the hunting district, some of the land owned by the applicant must be within the boundaries of that portion.
- Lessees do not qualify as landowners.
- Landowner Preference applicants are limited to 15% of drawing based quotas.

For Deer Permits, Deer B Licenses, & Antelope Licenses: To qualify for landowner preference, you must own or be contracting to purchase at least 160 acres of land in the hunting district for which you are applying. Your property must be primarily used for agriculture.

For Elk Permits and Elk B Licenses: To qualify for landowner preference, you must own or be contracting to purchase at least 640 acres of contiguous land used by elk in the hunting district for which you applied. Contiguous land is land that is not interrupted by adjacent private, state, or public land.

THE OUTSIDE IS IN US ALL.

TAX BILL INFORMATION:

- If providing a tax bill, it must include the GEOCODE, LEGAL DESCRIPTION, and the name the land is listed in. All other information is not relevant to this application.
