

Position Description

1715 Hour AmeriCorps Member

Location: Travelers Rest and Fort Owen

Term of service: January 17, 2022 – November 17, 2023

Service schedule: Member will serve a minimum of 1,715 hours over a 44-week term, averaging 41 hours per week with 80 hours of “Time Not Scheduled to Serve” to be used as sick, vacation, or other personal leave.

Position Summary:

Travelers’ Rest State Park marks the intersection of cultural and natural history. The Park’s 65 acres encompass the only archaeologically-verified campsite of the Lewis & Clark Expedition, a gathering place used by the Bitterroot Salish and other tribes for millennia, and riparian habitat for hundreds of species of plants and animals.

Each year more than 33,000 visitors, including more than 2,100 school children from 20 communities, visit Travelers’ Rest State Park to experience the stories of the people and creatures who have come before them.

Place-based education and interpretation lie at the heart of Travelers’ Rest State Park with standards-based field trip curricula related to the Corps of Discovery, Native American culture, and natural history. The education program is funded and administered by the Travelers’ Rest Connection (TRC), the nonprofit partner of the Park.

The AmeriCorps member selected for this position will work closely with the Park and TRC staff to design and deliver high-quality educational experiences for multiple generations, including field trips, camps, community events, and more. The member will engage with various audiences (volunteers, teachers, donors, the general public, etc.) to promote awareness of the Park and its many activities. They will also help to improve the Park through projects like trail development, native landscaping, and restoration within the riparian area.

In addition to serving at Travelers’ Rest State Park, the AmeriCorps member will serve at Fort Owen State Park in Stevensville, MT. Fort Owen State Park (FOSP) preserves some of the earliest Euro-American histories in Montana. This small Park is on the grounds of a trading post operated by John Owen from the 1850s-1870s. Originating by Jesuit missionaries, Fort Owen was the site of many historic “firsts” in Montana – the first grist mill, the first sawmill, the first water right, and the first permanent Euro-American settlement.

AmeriCorps members in this position will have the opportunity to learn about and develop volunteers while working with park managers and staff to continue developing volunteer programs at both Travelers' Rest and Fort Owen State Parks.

Member will contribute to the following program goals:

 - Oversee and assist in operating cultural demonstrations alongside the Park Manager and Travelers Rest Connection (TRC)'s executive director.
 - Develop at least 2 new interpretive program plans for Travelers Rest and Fort Owen State Parks.
 - Contribute to planning and execution of public programs including Expedition Days, Summer Storytelling, Demonstration Day, and community events such as farmers markets.

- Increase volunteer capacity
 - Recruit and train at least 1 new volunteer rover at Fort Owen State Park to increase program capacity and provide training opportunities for existing volunteers to improve skills in informal interpretation and place-based education.
 - Assist the park manager with volunteer coordination, including communicating, planning, training, and working alongside volunteers at both Travelers' Rest and Fort Owen State Parks.
 - Working with the TRC Executive Director, the member will identify opportunities to recognize volunteers and design cost effective and meaningful rewards for volunteer service.
- Enhance outreach and awareness of state parks
 - TRC and Travelers' Rest State Park have strong partnerships with other community organizations which include reciprocal presentations at events and festivals. The member will develop and present both adult and youth content related to the natural history and citizen science opportunities at Travelers' Rest and Fort Owen, and may also participate on community-wide planning committees for event.
 - The member will work with TRC on a variety of events related to nonprofit management, fundraising, and donor stewardship. (annual auction, member only reception, etc.)
